

Canadian Society for Education through Art Société canadienne d'éducation par l'art

CSEA/SCÉA Provincial / Territorial Affiliate Awards

The Award:

An Award certificate, based on nominations from individual provincial or territorial art teachers' associations. If a provincial or territorial association is not in a position to complete the selection process, a nomination can be submitted directly to the CSEA/SCÉA Executive.

Annual Timeline:

Nominations must be received by the CSEA/SCÉA Secretary General on or before Sept.30, who will forward them to the Awards Sub-Committee for review. The recipient will be notified by Dec. 15 and the award will be conferred at the annual conference.

Criteria:

Art educators teaching Kindergarten to Grade 12 in public or independent school systems, or in postsecondary institutions in Canada can be nominated for this award. The nominee should be a mid to late career art educator and demonstrate:

- excellence in art teaching and/or research
- leadership in art education
- a significant contribution to art education
- CSEA/SCÉA membership
- the mandate of the CSEA/SCÉA

Please submit the following:

- This completed nomination form
- A letter of support from a professional colleague
- The nominee's Curriculum Vitae
- One photograph of the nominee along with 2-3 photos of him/her at work with learners and/or their own artwork and/or their learners' works.
